

As a subscriber of XM radio I expect, and pay for, the services they offer. Some of these services include the weather and traffic updates. I think that it would be unconstitutional to hinder XM from the right to keep their subscribers updated. You aren't hindering other, for profit, radio stations from broadcasting this service so you certainly shouldn't hinder XM radio. An unbiased restriction like that would certainly lower my opinion of the FCC.